

Center for Africa Development (CADI) and EXIM Finance Collaboration

On the 28th of January 2024, a pivotal accord materialized between the Center for Africa Development (CADI) and EXIM Finance, marking a significant stride in collaborative efforts towards African development. The ceremonious signing of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) in Abu Dhabi, UAE, witnessed CADI's Executive Chairman, Dr. Abdalla Hamdok, and EXIM Finance's Chairman and CEO, Mr. Salah Ibrahim Al Nasser, consolidating this partnership.

Addressing the assembly, Dr. Hamdok articulated CADI's strategic intent to expand its collaborative network by allying with distinguished regional and international entities that resonate with its ethos and objectives.

Dr. Hamdok praised EXIM Finance and its CEO/Chairman, Mr. Salah Nasser, for their longstanding and substantial contributions to African development. He expressed optimism and appreciation for this newly forged partnership, emphasizing its potential to yield mutually beneficial outcomes. The MOU between CADI and EXIM Finance signifies a forward-looking approach to cooperation, poised to enhance developmental initiatives and investment opportunities across Africa. This collaboration is envisioned to be a harbinger of progressive and sustainable economic development, furthering CADI's mission in the African continent.

